Small Business Success is Our Business

The Northeastern California Small Business Development Center (NEC SBDC) program is the leader in providing business owners and entrepreneurs with the tools and guidance needed to be successful.

Direct and personalized help is provided to entrepreneurs through professional expert consulting supplemented by low-cost or free seminars and conferences. These services are delivered throughout Northeastern California via an extensive network of five Small Business Development Service Centers and twenty-five outreach locations.

The SBDCs provide comprehensive business guidance on best practices for small businesses, business plan development, start-up basics, financing, procurement and contracting opportunities, regulatory compliance, money management, international trade, and manufacturing operations. Several SBDCs offer help in multiple languages or target specific populations, such as veterans, women, rural communities, and/or under-represented ethnic groups.

In the 2009 calendar year, the NEC SBDC:

- Advised 3052 clients
- Provided 12,871 hours of Counseling
- Held 604 business management training sessions
- Instructed 6380 training session attendees
- Created 91 New Businesses
- Helped create 436 jobs and retain 429 jobs
- Helped clients increase sales by $20,803,566
- Facilitated 73 small business loans for a total dollar amount of $9,880,417

Addressing Small Business Needs In a Challenging Economy

The California SBDC Network is part of a national delivery system that assists more than 1.3 million business owners annually. The SBDC was established by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) and operates throughout the U.S. with 63 regional Lead Centers overseeing operations in more than 1,100 SBDC service centers.

The Northeastern California SBDC Network

Small businesses in Northeastern California face a challenging economic climate, and other problems specific to this region including difficulties in market access and access to capital, to name a few. NEC SBDC provides new and existing entrepreneurs with the information, skill development and professional consulting designed to help regional small businesses succeed.
